Centara Seaview Resort Khao Lak is set within a prime location of great natural beauty on Nang Thong Beach, where the emerald blue waters of the Andaman Sea and Khao Lak’s verdant mountains meet. The resort is located close to a huge area of national parkland, it’s also in the heart of Khao Lak’s with a variety of restaurants and bars, and the pier from which boats depart for the tropical Similan and Surin islands is within 30 minutes.

You’ll also find an endless selection of activity options available, making the resort a perfect place for families, couples and groups of friends seeking an exciting holiday adventure, or simply a relaxing retreat.
Centara Seaview Resort Khao Lak is designed as clusters of low-rise buildings and detached villas, set in three separate zones to create an air of privacy for guests. All rooms and villas are generously-sized and have a balcony or terrace with views over the natural surroundings while villas offer generous living space and most of which have their own private plunge pool.

Designed in a family-friendly concept, the resort offers a selection of a king, twin or two double beds with a large living space. The 51-square-metre Deluxe rooms can accommodate of up to three adults and one child; while the 107-square-metre Deluxe Two Bedroom Family Residences, which are spread over two floors, are suitable for six adults.

The resort offers a huge variety of activities. Three swimming pools are within the extensive grounds; one is directly on the beachfront, and two are set within the gardens, complete with children's pool, a waterslide and Jacuzzi.

Other leisure facilities include two tennis courts, a squash court, a fitness centre and games room, and SPA Cenvaree with a full range of relaxing treatments and therapies. The supervised Kids’ Club, Camp Safari and E-Zone, and the children’s playground will keep children busy and happy while you retreat to the beckoning beach with its soft golden sands and gentle waves.
The Lagoon wing, located close to the garden pool, is where the resort’s dining venues are concentrated. Orchid Restaurant offers Asian and international favourites in a comfortable setting.

Poolside Rim Nam Pool Restaurant & Bar is ideal for a serene lunch not far from your niche at one of our swimming pools and Talay Thong Restaurant serves up spicy authentic Thai dishes and locally-sourced seafood along with wide-open ocean views.

There is also a swim-up Pool Bar serving cocktails and refreshments, as well as the Time Out Fun Sport Pub; offering a good choice of light bites.
With its beachside setting, secluded accommodation and a broad range of facilities and attractions, the resort is excellent for events of any size, held either indoors or outdoors. There are three primary meeting venues along with an extensive range of amenities and the finest oceanfront setting in Nang Thong Beach.

The 432-square-metre distraction-free Khao Lak Hall can hold up to 400 people seated theatre-style or for a standing reception, and is divisible into two smaller venues. Each meeting venue comes complete with a full range of audiovisual equipments. Natural settings for beachfront weddings can also be arranged.

In addition, the resort offers convenient access to several fascinating natural sites such as Lam Ru National Park, which is less than five minutes by road, Sai Rung Waterfall and Pakarang Cape. Plus, there are plenty of opportunities to enjoy adventurous activities in Khao Lak. Avid divers, snorkelling enthusiasts and nature-lovers will enjoy Similan and Surin Islands, where pristine white sandy beaches and stunning coral formations have been delighting visitors for years.
